Thank You, Pastor Klatt!

Our warmest thanks to Pastor Gary Klatt for leading worship at both services this weekend, and for leading the Sunday morning Bible Study. Pastor Klatt and his lovely wife Sharon moved to Brandon this year after his many years of faithful service to St. John Lutheran in Luverne, MN. We appreciate his taking time during his retirement to feed us with "The Bread of Life" and we look forward to worshipping with the Klatts and getting to know them even better in the future.

Celebrate LWML Sunday TODAY

A special worship service is planned for today to celebrate all that God has done through the LWML. "Kingdom People Produce Kingdom Fruit" is the theme for LWML Sunday 2020, which is based on Jesus' words to the chief priests and Pharisees found in Matthew 21:43 that ... The kingdom of God will be ... given to a people producing its fruits. You are encouraged to wear purple (women and men!) to help celebrate LWML Sunday.

Cupcakes for LWML Sunday

The Ladies of Blessed Redeemer LWML will be selling homemade cupcakes and cookies today (Sunday) after service. Please support this mission work with a free will offering, and enjoy a delicious morning snack! The money raised will be sent to The Alpha Center, whose mission is to provide positive alternatives with practical support to women and men involved in an unexpected pregnancy. Thank you for helping your LWML support this important mission!

Adult Bible Study Theme is "All Alone"

Have you ever felt alone, in a new community, at a new school or at summer camp, or at a new job? Jesus truly knows how you felt, since no one in history has suffered more intensely from loneliness than Jesus did during the 24 hours before his death on the cross. Following our Sunday worship service, we will follow Jesus to Gethsemane and to his illegal night trial where he was deserted by all the disciples when we study the last half of Mark chapter 14. Pastor Klatt will lead us in a brief study after we watch the next segment of "Stuff They Didn't Teach Me in Sunday School" titled "All Alone" so please stay and don't leave our guest teacher "All Alone"!

MOB Hears of More Ups and Downs

Why can't life always be one victory after another? This week's Men of Brandon Bible study will look at that question, and ask how one of the best Judges of Israel could follow up his stunning victory with a colossal blunder. God wants us to learn from the mistakes of others, and we will learn what we can from Judges chapter 8 when we meet this Wednesday morning. Men, we need you to add your wisdom to our study, and you are invited to our breakfast at Sunshine afterwards for more good conversation following the study.

"Being Lutheran" Book Club to Resume October 19th

Good News! After being interrupted this last spring, the "Being Lutheran" Book Club will resume on Monday Oct. 19th at 7pm. Even better news: if you are a good reader, you can check a copy of the book they are studying out of the library and join them by reading the first 19 short chapters, a mere 170 easy to read pages. "Except the Corn Die", the historical novel they are reading out loud each meeting, is a fascinating book about the birth of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and how they survived trials much like the pilgrims faced when they immigrated to America. There is only one copy in the library, so be the first to check it out and join the club!

Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Clothed in the Righteousness of Christ, We Partake of His Wedding Feast

By His cross and resurrection, the Lord has swallowed up death forever, and by His Gospel He "will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth" (Is. 25:8). Therefore, "let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation" (Is. 25:9). On the mountain of the Lord of hosts — in His Church on earth, as in the kingdom of heaven — He has made "for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine" (Is. 25:6). It is the royal "wedding feast" of the Son of God, "and everything is ready" (Matt. 22:1, 4). Thus, His servants are sent into the highways and byways to invite and gather as many as they find, "both good and bad," to fill the wedding hall with guests (Matt. 22:8–10). In Holy Baptism, He clothes them all in the "wedding garment" of His own perfect righteousness (Matt. 22:11). Therefore, "do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God," and "rejoice in the Lord always" (Phil. 4:4–6).

Please take this folder with its inserts home today to remind you of opportunities for prayer and service in the upcoming weeks.
