Breakfast Bible Study to Begin Again In September

It's been a long time since the Breakfast Bible Study group was able to meet, so we are "jump starting" it again in September. We aren't yet able to meet at Bethany Meadows, so we will meet at 9am on Monday, Sept. 13th in the Blessed Redeemer conference room. We will resume our interrupted study of "The Life of Christ- the Passion." Bring your favorite breakfast treat to share and coffee will be provided.

MOB Learns the "Three "P's" Expected of Men
You've heard religion called the "4th R" of education, along with reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic (the "w" of writing and the "a" of arithmetic used to be silent when these words were pronounced of course!) But men, do you know what the "Three "P's" are that are Biblical expectations of every Christian husband and father? If not, you need to join our study of "Man Up!" this Wednesday to get up to speed. We meet every Wednesday morning in the conference room, and those who are able go out to breakfast afterwards, so new members always welcome!

Our Walk Through the Bible Continues

Education Hour is meant for youth through adult ages, so parents, when it starts next Sunday, don't drop your children off for Sunday School and go out for coffee and pick them up when it is over. You can set an important example for them as a life-long student of the Word of God by attending Adult Bible Study Class while they are in their classes. We will be attempting to complete our complete survey of the Bible this fall by continuing "Stuff They Didn't Teach Me in Sunday School" in the Gospel of John and continuing into the letters (epistles) of the apostles. You are welcome to bring your coffee and refreshments from after the service into our study in the sanctuary!

SCRIP: Giving back to the preschool

Have you heard of SCRIP? It's where you buy gift cards from your favorite brands to use for your daily purchases. It's that easy! The stores give a percentage back to BRLP. We use these extras to cover shipping and credit is given for tuition. If you would like to learn more, grab some information on the front table and sign up! Would you like more information or need assistance, Miss Michelle would love to help out!

Hear Ye, Hear Ye

We need you...The time has come for us to begin our new Sunday School Year! We are asking you to prayerfully consider helping shape the young minds of our congregation into strong followers of God!!

We need 2-3 teachers for the following classes: 3-4 yr olds; Jr K-Kindergarten; 1st-2nd ; 3rd-4th; 5th – 8th, and music. This may seem like a huge commitment. However, if we have even 2 teachers per grade, you would only need to teach twice a month. If we have 3 teachers per grade it would mean even a smaller commitment divided accordingly.

Please join us for some fun and fellowship following church on September 12th for Rally Sunday as we kick off our Sunday School year. Kids will be able to have a meet and greet with their teachers and fellow classmates as well as have some great fun along the way.

No experience necessary; please reach out to any of the Board of Ed members to reserve your teaching spot now! A brief teacher meeting will be held on Sept 12, after our Rally Sunday festivities where we will review the curriculums as well as the class schedules. Thank you for supporting our educational program at Blessed Redeemer, Your Board of Ed Staff: Sarah Peterson, Molly Leopold, and Juliana Ruud.

Help Move the Thermometer

Thank the Lord for all of your generous donations!! The work has started and we can't wait to see how this new sound systems reaches more people for Jesus in the coming months and years. No one likes to see the thermometer go up in the summer except when it's the Capital Campaign Results, so lets help move the thermometer! We are excited to share with you that we are now at $16,920 raised. In order to replenish the savings account and complete our to do list, we are raising $95,000. Please prayerfully consider continuing to helping us raise these funds in order to share God's word with others.

Preschool Corner: T-shirts

BRLC Congregational members- Have you ever been so envious that you want to wear the bright green preschool shirts? If you are just dying to have one, then we have the best opportunity for you! Log onto ajspiritwear.com and then Click on login. Enter the password: brlp. Orders are due September 10th.

Attention BRLC:

Do you have a yard full of sticks that need to be picked up? Or a basement full of boxes that need to be trashed? Or furniture that needs to be moved? The National Youth Gathering kids have formed the Odd Job Squad to help you out and to raise funds for their trip to Houston in July. Forms are available in the church office with dates and times available. Donations to the NYG fund will be accepted. Grab a request form and turn it in to the church office with your odd job. Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

The Cry of Faith: Lord, Have Mercy

The ten lepers cried out from a distance, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” (Luke 17:11–19). Their condition cut them off from God and others. So also do the works of the flesh cut us off from God and others. “Those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God” (Gal. 5:16–24). Thus we cry out with the lepers, “Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy; Lord, have mercy,” eagerly seeking His good gifts. Jesus said to the lepers, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed. So too, we walk by faith and not by sight, being confident of Jesus’ help before we see any evidence of it, trusting that Jesus’ cleansing words of forgiveness will restore us to wholeness in the resurrection. Let us be as the one leper who returned to the true High Priest to give Him thanks and glory. For Jesus bore our infirmities in His sacrifice at Calvary. His words are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh (Prov. 4:10–23).
